Powerscourt Gardens & Waterfall

Visitor Guide

Explore the Garden of Ireland!

Powerscourt Gardens are world famous and receive 250,000 visitors a year. Set in the wild Wicklow countryside, overlooking the Sugarloaf Mountain, Powerscourt enjoys a breath-taking panorama. The Gardens stretch over 47 acres and offer visitors a sublime blend of formal gardens, sweeping terraces, statues and ornamental lakes, secret hollows and rambling walks.

Powerscourt Waterfall is the highest waterfall in Ireland and features 121m of cascading water, set in beautiful parkland. Discover trees that are hundreds of years old, meet our local wildlife and picnic in the Wicklow countryside.
